Showbiz Scheduling has become the go-to software for producers and production managers who want the most control over their shooting schedule, combined with the flexibility to change elements on the fly. Showbiz Scheduling comes with fully customizable reports including the call sheet, production report, shooting schedule, stripboard, exhibit "g" and crew list.

Industry-standard reports are built right in and linked directly to the schedule, allowing you to organize your project efficiently, from first call to final wrap. Simple interfaces make Showbiz Scheduling a hit with everyone from first-time filmmakers to seasoned veterans.

Breakthrough Innovations

- Stars automatically indicate changes in the schedule and cast work days.
- Cast BlackOut protects you from accidentally scheduling actors on unavailable days.
- TimeOut lets you measure shoot days by hours, and organize your shoot with daily times that change right on the stripboard (ideal for commercials and music videos).
- A robust calendar and expandable schedule enables you to fully schedule prep through post.
